

Intelligence - 2

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR
STRATEGIC SERVICES UNIT
25th & Constitution Avenue, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.

2 October 1959

Mr. John Francis Langan

Dear Mr. Langan:

This is by way of further response to your letter of 16 August 1959 to the President of the United States. In the absence from the city of the Director of Central Intelligence, I am writing you in further detail inasmuch as I am the officer designated to assist in handling the residual affairs of the Office of Strategic Services.

In your letter you made reference to the license which you granted the Government, effective 3 January 1944, for the use of your "Card Record System" as described in Patent Applications Nos. 492, 559 and 516, 785. You stated that you have never received the sum of $1.00 which was set forth as partial consideration for the granting of the license. You have requested that you be sent a check in this amount with a suitable notation, which you desire to have framed.

I am pleased to be able to comply with your desires in this matter and accordingly there is enclosed the check you requested. Your services to your country have been much appreciated.

Your papers are returned herewith.

Very truly yours,

Executive Officer
